

ARTISTS SOCIETY OF CANBERRA 2026 SPRING EXHIBITION

MEET THE JUDGES

NICK OFFER

Nick Offer is an award-winning figurative painter based in Canberra. His work focuses on landscape and portraiture, often combining mixed media with traditional approaches to his subjects.

He has exhibited both internationally – most recently at 'Figurativas' 2025 in The Museum of Modern European Art in Barcelona – and nationally, where in recent years his work has featured in The Shirley Hannon Portrait Award, The John Leslie Landscape Prize, The Percival Portrait Award and The Tattersall's Landscape Prize, amongst others.

In 2024 he won the Doyles Landscape Award and has been highly commended at the National Contemporary art Prize (twice) and the Lethbridge Landscape Award.

He works from his studio in M16 Studio Space, Canberra.

MONIKA MCINERNEY

Monika McInerney is currently the Artistic Director and Co-CEO of Belco Arts. She has a long history that spans almost forty years of working in the arts in SA, NT, NSW, ACT and the UK. She celebrates an extensive career in arts management, curation, events, program development, policymaking, and strategic planning in addition to being an educator and maker in her own creative practice.

